Direction 1

Overview

01 This direction treats Alpine Modern as a brand deeply shaped by its surroundings. It emphasizes landscape, heritage, and lived-in authenticity through refined but approachable design choices.

The goal is to create recognition and emotional connection, positioning Alpine Modern as a café that feels grounded, welcoming, and distinctly local.

Direction 1

Brand Expression

A brand that feels warm, recognizable, and grounded in its surroundings.

01 ↓

Approachable

The brand feels open and familiar, setting an inviting tone that makes guests feel comfortable entering and staying.

02 ↓

Grounded

Materials and environments reflect real places and textures, reinforcing authenticity and a sense of everyday presence.

03 ↓

Recognizable

Consistent visual cues help the brand stand out and become easier to identify across locations and materials.

04 ↓

Comfortable

Spaces feel designed for lingering, conversation, and ease rather than speed or performance.

Direction 1

Design

Structured layouts that bring clarity, confidence, and consistency.

01 ↓

Layout Grid

A clear grid system creates structure and consistency, allowing a wide range of content to feel organized and intentional.

02 ↓

Content Blocks

Information is grouped logically to improve readability across menus, signage, and café collateral.

03 ↓

High Contrast

Strong contrast improves legibility and gives the brand a confident, easy-to-read presentation.

04 ↓

Open Space

Generous spacing keeps layouts calm and approachable while giving important elements room to breathe.

Direction 1

Branded Items

Illustration and detail that reinforce local pride and personality.

01 ↓

Placemaking

Illustrations and details reference the café and its surroundings, reinforcing Alpine Modern's connection to Boulder.

02 ↓

Flora

Illustrations reference alpine landscapes and mountain living in a way that feels familiar, not overly literal.

03 ↓

Fauna

Character-driven illustrations introduce warmth and personality, reflecting the people and energy of the café.

04 ↓

Heritage

Badges and marks draw from classic design traditions to signal care, longevity, and pride.

Direction 1

Coffee Packaging

Packaging that combines alpine imagery with strong structure and recognition.

01 ↓

Iconic

Bold graphic moments create strong shelf presence and help products feel memorable at a glance.

02 ↓

Mountainscapes

Landscape imagery turns packaging into a visual takeaway from the café and its alpine setting.

03 ↓

Visible Grid

Structured layouts keep information clear while reinforcing the overall design system.

04 ↓

X Stamp

A flexible brand mark ties packaging back to the larger visual identity.

Direction 2

Overview

02 This direction explores Alpine Modern as a highly curated café experience and beyond, where quality, hospitality, and design discipline take the lead. The focus is less on literal place and more on taste, care, and restraint.

You'll see elements that emphasize quiet confidence, consistency, and craft, expressed through typography-led layouts and refined branding choices.

Direction 2

Brand Expression

A brand that feels calm, confident,
and thoughtfully curated.

01 ↓

Curated

Every element feels selected and intentional, communicating taste and care rather than abundance or visual noise.

02 ↓

Confident

The brand does not over explain. It trusts restraint and clarity to signal quality and experience.

03 ↓

Warm

Refined presentation is balanced with human moments that keep the experience welcoming and approachable.

04 ↓

Grounded

Subtle references prevent the brand from feeling generic or overly polished.

Direction 2

Design

Typography led systems that feel expressive yet disciplined.

01 ↓

Typographic Compositions

Typography carries the brand voice, establishing hierarchy, tone, and confidence across applications.

02 ↓

Expressive Layouts

Movement and variation add energy while maintaining control and consistency.

03 ↓

Color Overlays

Layered color introduces emphasis and focus without overwhelming the composition.

04 ↓

Heritage Lockups

Small typographic details reference longevity and experience in a quiet, refined way.

Direction 2

Branded Items

Subtle applications that express refinement without excess.

01 ↓

Minimal

Smaller logo placements feel deliberate and confident, avoiding unnecessary visual emphasis.

02 ↓

Tonal

Low contrast applications add texture and depth while maintaining a refined, understated look.

03 ↓

Appliqués

Labels and patches introduce branding through material and craft rather than bold graphics.

04 ↓

Alternate Logos

Typographic variations allow flexibility while keeping the system cohesive and controlled.

Direction 2

Direction 2

Coffee Packaging

Typography and narrative that elevate product perception.

01 ↓

Brand Narrative

Packaging creates space to communicate Alpine Modern's point of view and approach to quality.

02 ↓

Product Story

Details about origin and process elevate perceived value and deepen engagement.

03 ↓

Typographic Focus

Strong typography establishes an upscale, confident presence without relying on imagery.

04 ↓

Classic Café

Subtle references to café tradition add warmth and credibility to the overall presentation.
